Die Mercurii, 2. Novemb. 1642. 432

Hereas Wee the LORDS and COMMONS have Ordered, That it be referred to the Committee for the ſafety of the Kingdom, to prepare Heads of an Humble Addreſſe unto His Majeſtie, for compoſing the preſent Differences and Diſtractions, and ſetling the Peace of the Kingdom, and to preſent them to the Houſe.

To prevent all Miſconſtructions or Neglects, whereby our juſt Defence may be hindred, We do Declare, That the Preparation of Forces, and all other neceſſary means for the Defence of the Proteſtant Religion, the Priviledges of Parliament, the Laws and Liberties of the Subject, ſhall be proſecuted with all vigour.

H: Elſynge, Cler: Parl: D: Com.

London, Printed by F.F. for E. Husbands and F. Franck.